LITTLE TIGER
LONDON

It was Christmas morning and one last present sat beneath the tree.

“I bet it’s mine!” giggled Esme.

“No, mine!” whooped Bear.

But as they reached for the red-wrapped gift, they noticed something HUGELY surprising. It wasn’t for either one of them. Not Esme . . . OR Bear!

The tag read For Little Bunny Boo-Boo, Love Santa.

“Well,” said Esme, “in all the busy
JuMbLE - TuMbleNesS of Christmas, somebody’s present has been mixed up with ours.”
BUT WHAT SHOULD THEY DO?

“Let’s open it!” said Bear, giving it a BEARISH sniff.
Esme had a better idea. “Let’s find Little Bunny Boo-Boo and make sure she gets her gift!”

So they pulled on their warm winter clothes and set off into the snow.

They had not gone far when they came across a sign.

“The TREACHEROUS path!” gulped Bear. “I don’t like the sound of that!”
“How TREACHEROUS can it be?” shrugged Esme, sure they’d both be fine.

But, OH DEAR! The path was VERY treacherous indeed!

With SLIPPY bits . . .

and SLIDEY bits . . .

and FALL-DOWN-ON-YOUR-BOTTOM bits!

BUMP!
