“Prince has gone!” said Fang.
“I saw him drive away!”

“Where’s he gone?”
asked Honey.
“He was bathed and
clipped yesterday.”

“He’s gone to his other house,” said Millie. “He has two, remember?”

Prince lived in Buffin Street for half the week, then somewhere else for the rest. His people shared him between them.

Prince quite liked having two houses.
“Twice the food, twice the presents,”
he always said, preening at his rows
of bows, his two sparkling diamond
collars and sacks full of toys.

Lola stretched and peered
over her balcony.

Everyone stood still as this amazing news sank in.
